TERMS OF AGREEMENT

Photos will be available to you approximately 30 days after your photo session and will be presented through a locked link to your gallery. The gallery will be available for you to view and download as soon as payment has been approved and the full edits have been completed. Half of your payment must be made prior to the wedding day and the second half made within one week of the date. Photos will not be edited or released until payment has been made. If for whatever reason you have to cancel my services, please do so at least one week before the date. Cancellation within less than one week of your wedding date will incur a 20% cancellation fee. Changes can be made to the hours that you want me to be in attendance at your event up to three days before the event.

A WORD ABOUT COPYRIGHT

The Federal Copyright Law protects copyright. It is unlawful to copy or scan any images without the permission of the photographer. Even though the pictures may be of you, the photographer still owns the copyright to the image. The photographer should receive credit for any images posted or placed online in any way. These images should not be entered into competition or used for commercial use without the permission of Corandrews Photography.

By signing this document, you are agreeing that you have fully read and understand all of the above for both pricing and the written out agreements.

Names of everyone in the bridal party:

Names and faces of family (and someone to point them out at the wedding who is not either of you):

A shot list (ideas of photos that you would like to recreate or see in your gallery):

Moments that you absolutely want to make sure that I capture:

Are you interested in photos of the guests or mainly the two of you?

Shot locations (are we going to be taking all photos inside or some outside as well?)

Any elements of the wedding or decorations that are special or significant to either of you:

Any traditions that are special to you that you will be incorporating into your wedding:

Anything else you feel like may be important for me to know before your big day:
